

HAMBLETON

DISTRICT COUNCIL

Registration of Financial and Personal Interests for Parish/Town Councillors

Localism Act 2011
Local Code of Member Conduct

Introduction

Under the Localism Act 2011 you are required to register certain interests with the District Council's Monitoring Officer. The interests include those of yourself, your spouse or civil partner. The register is available to the public.

The registerable interests are set out in the legislation. Other interests may be specified in your Council's Code of Conduct. These guidance notes aim to assist you in determining what interests you have to register to comply with the legislation. It does not cover any additional interests referred to in your Council's Code of Conduct.

The Registerable Interests

The interests which are registerable are specified in the Relevant Authorities (Disclosable Pecuniary Interests) Regulations 2012, to which Members are referred when completing this Register of Interests. Set out below is an explanation of the nature of those interests.

Alne Parish Council

Name of Councillor: (In block capitals please)
JOHN NEWTON

I hereby notify you of my interests (and those of my spouse, civil partner or persons living with me as if a spouse or civil partner) as required by the Code of Member Conduct as follows:-

1. Employment or Business

A short description of any job or business carried on by you including any office, trade, profession or vocation carried on for profit or gain including the name of your employer. You are required to declare any employment or business even if it is not within the Council's area. You are not required to declare what income you receive.

Farmer

The information required is the address of the land or (where, for example, it is land without any buildings on it) a brief description good enough to identify the location. If necessary, please attach a map showing the location of the land or list the Ordnance Survey field numbers which apply.

House plus approx. 40 acres of land at home address: Mayfield, Youlton Lane, Alne

5. Licences

Any licences that you have either on your own or jointly with others, or any permission that you have to occupy land (for example, as an allotment or for fishing or shooting) where the licence, or permission, will last for a month or longer.

The information required is the address of the land or (where, for example, it is land without any buildings on it) a brief description good enough to identify the location. If necessary, please attach a map showing the location of the land or list the Ordnance Survey field numbers which apply.

Shotgun and Firearms Certificate at home address.

6. Corporate Tenancies

The address of any land or buildings rented from the Council by you or a body in which you have a beneficial interest.

The information required is the address of the land or where, for example, it is land without any buildings on it, a brief description good enough to identify the location. If necessary, please attach a map showing the location of the land or list the Ordnance Survey field numbers which apply.

None

7. Securities

Securities means shares, debentures, debenture stock, loan stock, bonds, units of a collective investment scheme within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (as amended) and other securities of any description other than money deposited with a building society.

The name of any person or other body who has a place of business or land in the Council's area and in whom you have a beneficial interest in a class of securities of that person or body that exceeds the nominal value of £25,000 or one hundredth of the total issued share capital (whichever is the lower), eg if the company has 100 £1 shares and you have one share you need to declare the interest. The value of shares is the face value (the value recorded on the share certificate) not the current market value.

For example, you bought 10,000 £1.50 shares (face value) in 1999. The market value at that time was £3.00 each, so the total paid was £30,000, but the shares are now worth £45,000. The nominal value of the shares would be £15,000 (10,000 x £1.50). Therefore, you would not be obliged to enter the shares in the register of interests, even though the current market value of the shares is £45,000. It is not necessary to declare the size or nature of the holding, simply the name of the company or other body.

You have a beneficial interest in a type of share if, for example, you own, you are entitled to the proceeds of, or you may, through a trust or will, become entitled to the proceeds of, that type of share. You do not need to register any such interest that you have as trustee.

If you know the companies in which your PEP, ISA or pension fund has invested and:

- those companies have a place of business or land in the Council's area; and
- your beneficial interest in the investment is greater than the levels indicated above, then you need to register that interest. You are only required to register interests which are known to you. You are not required to investigate the investment portfolio of any PEP, ISA or pension scheme to which you may belong.

Privacy Statement

The information you provide on this form will be processed in accordance with the obligations contained in the Localism Act 2011.

Sensitive Information

If you consider that the availability for inspection by the public of information relating to any of your interests creates, or is likely to create, a serious risk that you or a person who lives with you may be subjected to violence or intimidation, you may apply to the Monitoring Officer for permission not to include that sensitive information on the Register of Members' Interests. This would apply if you are employed in an area of sensitive employment, such as certain types of scientific research. If the Monitoring Officer agrees that the information is sensitive information there is no need to include the sensitive information on the register of interests, although the existence of an interest, but not the details of the sensitive information, must still be declared at meetings if business relating to or affecting the interest is being considered at the meeting. If you think that some of your information is sensitive please write to the Monitoring Officer.

Removal of Registrations

When an interest no longer exists it can be removed from the Register. You should contact the Clerk to your Council who should then notify Louise Hancock, Democratic Services Officer, at Hambleton District Council, Tel: 01609 767015, email: louise.hancock@hambleton.gov.uk

When you cease to be a Councillor, all of the registration can be removed. You should contact the Clerk to your Council who should then notify Louise Hancock, Democratic Services Officer, at Hambleton District Council, Tel: 01609 767015, email: louise.hancock@hambleton.gov.uk
